

MEMPHIS PASSES GOAL IN GREAT HOSPITAL DRIVE

Methodists Close Campaign One Day in Advance of Schedule—Final Figures Show $406,435.16.

The city of Memphis has successfully met the challenge of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, to meet the subscriptions of the surrounding conferences in North Mississippi, Eastern Arkansas and West Tennessee, in raising the $500,000 necessary to build and equip the new Methodist hospital, now nearing completion on the old Malvern home site, on Lamar avenue. Memphis' half of the goal was reached and passed Friday night when the 25 team captains and their 250 workers met at the Hotel Chiles for the final report, which showed returns for the day of $26,114.81, and brought the grand total to $406,435.16.

So industrious were the workers, and so generous were the people of Memphis, that the campaign closed one day earlier than had been planned. The popularity of the cause was proved by the number of subscribers supporting the campaign, numbering 5,176.

Campaigns in the surrounding conferences will be made during the month of May. Four conferences are supporting the hospital, and each one proposes to contribute amounts ranging from $5,000 to $150,000.

Artists To Appear In Benefit Concert At Central High

For the worthy purpose of purchasing musical instruments for the Junior R. O. T. C. cadets at the Central high school, on next Friday evening, at 8:30 o'clock, a number of the best local artists will appear in concert. They are donating their services and the affair promises to be worthy of the support of everybody who is anxious to see musical development among the younger people of the city.

Mrs. Ralph L. Jurden is arranging the program, and is being assisted by some of the leading musicians and club people of Memphis. The tickets are selling at $1 each and are beginning to go freely, as the artistic merit of the affair is appealing, even without the need of about $1,200 for providing the new instruments.

Those to have a part in the program are: C. M. Sauer, Mrs. J. L. McGehee, Miss Ella Gerber, Mrs. J. W. Hon, Claude Tully, Jesse S. Houck, Jr., Mrs. Lollie Yahnke Buchanan, Mrs. Daniel Griffith, Maj. Milton Knowlton, Cortese brothers and the high school orchestra.
